6 I. Introduction

7 This case involves a dispute over real property located at 5236 Shasta Daisy Street, North 8 Las Vegas, Nevada, 89031 (the "property").

9 1. Plaintiff's interest in the property

10 On June 14, 2007, Miguel A. Chavez purchased the property. (ECF No. 12). On the same 11 day, Chavez executed and recorded a deed of trust identifying Countrywide Home Loans, Inc. as 12 the lender, ReconTrust Company, N.A. as the trustee, and Mortgage Electronic Registration
13 Systems, Inc. ("MERS"), as nominee for lender and lenders successors and assigns. Id. The deed 14 of trust secured a loan in the amount of $247,500.00. Id.

15 On January 25, 2010, a corporate assignment of deed of trust was recorded, whereby MERS
16 assigned all beneficial interest in the loan to BAC Home Loans Servicing, LP ("BAC Home 17 Loans") f/k/a Countrywide Home Loan Servicing, LP. Id. On June 3, 2014, an assignment of 18 deed of trust was recorded, whereby Bank of America, N.A. ("BANA"), successor by merger to 19 BAC Home Loans, assigned all beneficial interest in the deed of trust to plaintiff in its individual 20 capacity.<sup>1</sup> Id.

21 2. Defendants' interest in the property

22 On November 26, 2008, a notice of delinquent assessment lien was recorded against the 23 property by Nevada Association Services, Inc. ("NAS"), as agent for the HOA. Id. On January 24 22, 2009, a notice of default and election to sell under homeowners' association lien was recorded
25 against the property by NAS on behalf of the HOA. Id. On March 12, 2010, a release of notice

26
27
28 <sup>1</sup> Plaintiff's complaint also references an assignment of the deed of trust to plaintiff in its capacity as trustee for the ARLP Trust 3. See (ECF No. 12).

1 of delinquent lien was recorded against the property by NAS, on behalf of the HOA, in which the 2 HOA gave notice that the first notice of lien was satisfied and released. Id.

3 Also on March 12, 2010, a notice of rescission was recorded against the property by NAS,
4 on behalf of the HOA, pursuant to which the HOA rescinded the first notice of default. Id. On 5 November 18, 2010, a second notice of delinquent assessment lien was recorded against the 6 property by NAS, on behalf of the HOA. Id.

7 On May 13, 2011, Chavez filed for a voluntary petition under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy
8 Code. Id. On August 16, 2011, a discharge of debtor was entered in the bankruptcy action. Id.
9 Pursuant to this discharge, Chavez's pre-petition debt to the HOA was discharged. Id. The 10 bankruptcy action was closed on November 22, 2011. Id.

11 On October 4, 2011, a second notice of default and election to sell was recorded against 12 the property by NAS, on behalf of the HOA. Id. On May 15, 2012, a notice of foreclosure sale 13 was recorded against the property by NAS, on behalf of the HOA. Id.

14 On May 30, 2012, BANA sent NAS a letter requesting a payoff ledger. (ECF No. 59).
15 Neither the HOA nor NAS provided BANA with a payoff ledger. Id.

16 On December 14, 2012, a foreclosure sale took place whereby Red Lizard acquired the 17 property for $4,758.00.<sup>2</sup> (ECF No. 12).

18 3. Procedural history

19 On September 25, 2015, plaintiff filed its original complaint in this action. (ECF No. 1).
20 On January 31, 2017, plaintiff filed its first amended complaint. (ECF No. 12). The amended
21 complaint alleges the following claims: (1) quiet title/declaratory relief pursuant to NRS 30.010
22 and NRS 40.010 against all defendants; (2) preliminary and permanent injunction against all
23 defendants; (3) unjust enrichment against all defendants; (4) wrongful foreclosure against the HOA
24 and NAS; (5) negligence against the HOA and NAS; (6) negligence per se against the HOA and 25 NAS; (7) breach of contract against the HOA and NAS; (8) misrepresentation against the HOA 26

27
28 <sup>2</sup> At the time of the HOA sale, the amount owed on Chavez's loan exceeded $256,250.00.
(ECF No. 12). Plaintiff alleges that, at the time of the HOA sale, the fair market value of the property exceeded $140,000.00. Id.

1 and NAS; and (9) breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing against the HOA and NAS.
2 Id.

3 On June 15, 2017, RLP-Shasta and Red Lizard filed crossclaims against Christiana Trust
4 and counterclaims against the HOA, and NAS. (ECF No. 35). The crossclaims and counterclaims
5 allege the following causes of action: (1) declaratory relief/quiet title pursuant to NRS 30.010 and 6 116.3116 against Christiana Trust, the HOA, and NAS; (2) preliminary and permanent injunction
7 from foreclosure action against Christiana Trust, the HOA, and NAS; and (3) unjust enrichment 8 against Christiana Trust, the HOA, and NAS. (ECF No. 35).

9 II. Legal Standard

10 a. Dismissal

11 The court may dismiss a plaintiff's complaint for "failure to state a claim upon which relief 12 can be granted." Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6). A properly pled complaint must provide "[a] short and 13 plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2).
14 Although rule 8 does not require detailed factual allegations, it does require more than labels and 15 conclusions. Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007). Furthermore, a formulaic
16 recitation of the elements of a cause of action will not suffice. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 17 677 (2009) (citation omitted). Rule 8 does not unlock the doors of discovery for a plaintiff armed 18 with nothing more than conclusions. Id. at 678–79.

19 To survive a motion to dismiss, a complaint must contain sufficient factual matter to "state
20 a claim to relief that is plausible on its face." Id. A claim has facial plausibility when the plaintiff 21 pleads factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is 22 liable for the misconduct alleged. Id. When a complaint pleads facts that are merely consistent 23 with a defendant's liability, and shows only a mere possibility of entitlement, the complaint does 24 not meet the requirements to show plausibility of entitlement to relief. Id.

25 In Iqbal, the Supreme Court clarified the two-step approach district courts are to apply
26 when considering a motion to dismiss. Id. First, the court must accept as true all of the allegations 27 contained in a complaint. However, this requirement is inapplicable to legal conclusions. Id.
28 Second, only a complaint that states a plausible claim for relief survives a motion to dismiss. Id.

1 at 678. Where the complaint does not permit the court to infer more than the mere possibility of 2 misconduct, the complaint has “alleged – but not shown – that the pleader is entitled to relief.” Id.
3 at 679. When the allegations in a complaint have not crossed the line from conceivable to 4 plausible, plaintiff’s claim must be dismissed. Twombly, 550 U.S. at 570.

5 The Ninth Circuit addressed post-Iqbal pleading standards in Starr v. Baca, 652 F.3d 1202, 6 1216 (9th Cir. 2011). The Starr court held:

7 First, to be entitled to the presumption of truth, allegations in a complaint or 8 counterclaim may not simply recite the elements of a cause of action, but must 9 contain sufficient allegations of underlying facts to give fair notice and to enable 10 the opposing party to defend itself effectively. Second, the factual allegations that are taken as true must plausibly suggest an entitlement to relief, such that it is not unfair to require the opposing party to be subjected to the expense of discovery and continued litigation.

11 Id.

12 b. Summary judgment

13 The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure allow summary judgment when the pleadings, 14 depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any,
15 show that “there is no genuine dispute as to any material fact and the movant is entitled to a 16 judgment as a matter of law.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(a). A principal purpose of summary judgment is 17 “to isolate and dispose of factually unsupported claims.” Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 18 323–24 (1986).

19 For purposes of summary judgment, disputed factual issues should be construed in favor
20 of the non-moving party. Lujan v. Nat’l Wildlife Fed., 497 U.S. 871, 888 (1990). However, to be 21 entitled to a denial of summary judgment, the nonmoving party must “set forth specific facts 22 showing that there is a genuine issue for trial.” Id.

23 In determining summary judgment, a court applies a burden-shifting analysis. The moving 24 party must first satisfy its initial burden. “When the party moving for summary judgment would 25 bear the burden of proof at trial, it must come forward with evidence which would entitle it to a 26 directed verdict if the evidence went uncontroverted at trial. In such a case, the moving party has 27 the initial burden of establishing the absence of a genuine issue of fact on each issue material to 28

1 its case.” C.A.R. Transp. Brokerage Co. v. Darden Rests., Inc., 213 F.3d 474, 480 (9th Cir. 2000)
2 (citations omitted).

3 By contrast, when the nonmoving party bears the burden of proving the claim or defense,
4 the moving party can meet its burden in two ways: (1) by presenting evidence to negate an essential
5 element of the non-moving party’s case; or (2) by demonstrating that the nonmoving party failed 6 to make a showing sufficient to establish an element essential to that party’s case on which that 7 party will bear the burden of proof at trial. See Celotex Corp., 477 U.S. at 323–24. If the moving 8 party fails to meet its initial burden, summary judgment must be denied and the court need not 9 consider the nonmoving party’s evidence. See Adickes v. S.H. Kress & Co., 398 U.S. 144, 159– 10 60 (1970).

11 If the moving party satisfies its initial burden, the burden then shifts to the opposing party
12 to establish that a genuine issue of material fact exists. See Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co. v. Zenith 13 Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 586 (1986). To establish the existence of a factual dispute, the 14 opposing party need not establish a material issue of fact conclusively in its favor. It is sufficient 15 that “the claimed factual dispute be shown to require a jury or judge to resolve the parties’ differing 16 versions of the truth at trial.” T.W. Elec. Serv., Inc. v. Pac. Elec. Contractors Ass’n, 809 F.2d 626, 17 631 (9th Cir. 1987).

18 In other words, the nonmoving party cannot avoid summary judgment by relying solely on 19 conclusory allegations that are unsupported by factual data. See Taylor v. List, 880 F.2d 1040, 20 1045 (9th Cir. 1989). Instead, the opposition must go beyond the assertions and allegations of the 21 pleadings and set forth specific facts by producing competent evidence that shows a genuine issue
22 for trial. See Celotex, 477 U.S. at 324.

23 At summary judgment, a court’s function is not to weigh the evidence and determine the 24 truth, but to determine whether there is a genuine issue for trial. See Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, 25 Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 249 (1986). The evidence of the nonmovant is “to be believed, and all 26 justifiable inferences are to be drawn in his favor.” Id. at 255. But if the evidence of the 27 nonmoving party is merely colorable or is not significantly probative, summary judgment may be 28 granted. See id. at 249–50.

1                   III. Discussion

2                   1. Motion to dismiss Christina Trust's first amended complaint (ECF No. 23)

3                         a. Quiet title/declaratory relief

4                   The HOA argues that plaintiff's claim for quiet title/declaratory relief should be dismissed
5 because plaintiff's first amended complaint fails to allege, and cannot allege, it paid any debts
6 owed on the property. (ECF No. 23).

7                   In response, plaintiff argues that it is not obligated to pay all debts owed on the property.
8 (ECF No 25). The court agrees. Under Nevada law, to assert a claim for quiet title pursuant to 9 NRS 40.010, plaintiff need only allege that it has an interest in the real property that is adverse to 10 another. Plaintiff does not need to have paid all debts on the property, as claimed by the HOA.
11 See Nev. Rev. Stat. 40.010; see also Lopez v. Bank of Am., N.A., no. 2:12-cv-00801-JCM, 2013
12 WL 1501449, at *3 (D. Nev. Apr. 10, 2013).

13                   Next the HOA argues that plaintiff cannot prove good title in itself. (ECF No. 23). The 14 HOA argues that because plaintiff did not foreclose on the property plaintiff cannot hold title to 15 the property. Id. Plaintiff responds that it is not asserting an ownership or possessory interest in 16 the property as the HOA contends, but instead asks the court to hold that either its first deed of 17 trust still encumbers the property, or that the foreclosure sale was invalid. (ECF No. 25).

18                   “The purpose of a quiet title action is to establish one’s title against adverse claims to real 19 property or any interest therein.” Holmes v. Countrywide Home Loans, 2:12-cv-02013-JCM-
20 CWH, 2013 WL 1787182, at *3 (D. Nev. Apr. 25, 2013) (emphasis added). A plaintiff does not 21 have to assert an ownership interest in property in order to assert a claim for quiet title. See id.
22 Therefore, plaintiff's claim for quiet title does not hinge on its ability to show good and clear title.
23 See id.

24                   Lastly, the HOA contends that because it does not claim a present interest in the property
25 adverse to plaintiff's interest, there is no case or controversy between the parties. (ECF No. 23).
26 Thus, plaintiff's quiet title/declaratory relief asserted against the HOA should fail. Id. In response,
27 plaintiff argues that the HOA is a proper party to the quiet title claim, as a decision by the court 28

1 holding the foreclosure sale invalid directly affects the HOA's right and obligations. (ECF No.
2 25).

3 Under rule 19(a), a party must be joined as a "required" party in two circumstances: (1) 4 when "the court cannot accord complete relief among existing parties" in that party's absence, or 5 (2) when the absent party "claims an interest relating to the subject of the action" and resolving 6 the action without that party may, practically, "impair or impede the person's ability to protect the 7 interest," or may "leave an existing party subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple,
8 or otherwise inconsistent obligations because of the interest." Fed. R. Civ. P. 19(a)(1).

9 This court has reasoned that parties facing a quiet title claim are necessary parties when the 10 court's potential invalidation of the foreclosure sale could alter their possible liability to other 11 entities in the case. See Nationstar Mortg., LLC v. Maplewood Springs Homeowners Ass'n, No.
12 2:15-CV-1683-JCM-CWH, 2017 WL 843177, at *6 (D. Nev. Mar. 1, 2017); see also Disabled
13 Rights Action Comm. v. Las Vegas Events, Inc., 375 F.3d 861, 879 (9th Cir. 2004) (considering 14 the desire to avoid redundant litigation and specifying rule 19(a)(1)'s focus on allowing 15 "meaningful relief"). Therefore, the HOA is, at this point in the present litigation, a necessary 16 party.

17 In light of the foregoing, the HOA has failed to demonstrate that dismissal of plaintiff's
18 quiet title/declaratory relief claim is proper. Accordingly, the HOA's motion to dismiss plaintiff's 19 quiet title/declaratory relief claim will be denied.

20 b. Preliminary and Permanent Injunction

21 Claim (2) of plaintiff's complaint will be dismissed without prejudice as the court follows
22 the well-settled rule that a claim for "injunctive relief" standing alone is not a cause of action. See,
23 e.g., In re Wal-Mart Wage & Hour Emp't Practices Litig., 490 F. Supp. 2d 1091, 1130 (D. Nev.
24 2007); Tillman v. Quality Loan Serv. Corp., No. 2:12-CV-346 JCM RJJ, 2012 WL 1279939, at *3 25 (D. Nev. Apr. 13, 2012) (finding that "injunctive relief is a remedy, not an independent cause of 26 action"); Jensen v. Quality Loan Serv. Corp., 702 F. Supp. 2d 1183, 1201 (E.D. Cal. 2010) ("A 27 request for injunctive relief by itself does not state a cause of action.").
28

1                   c. Wrongful foreclosure; unjust enrichment; negligence; negligence per se;
2                   breach of contract; misrepresentation; and breach of the covenant of good
3                   faith and fair dealing claims

4                   The court will dismiss, without prejudice, the remaining eight claims of plaintiff's amended 5                   complaint (ECF No. 12) for plaintiff's failure to mediate pursuant to NRS 38.310. See, e.g., Nev.
7                   Subsection (1) of NRS 38.310 provides, in relevant part, as follows:

8                   No civil action based upon a claim relating to [t]he interpretation, application or 9                   enforcement of any covenants, conditions or restrictions applicable to residential 10                  property . . . or [t]he procedures used for increasing, decreasing or imposing 11                  additional assessments upon residential property, may be commenced in any court
12                  in this State unless the action has been submitted to mediation.

13               Nev. Rev. Stat. § 38.310(1). Subsection (2) continues by stating that a “court shall dismiss any 14               civil action which is commenced in violation of the provisions of subsection 1.” Nev. Rev. Stat.
15               § 38.310(2). A “civil action” includes any actions for monetary damages or equitable relief. See 16               Nev. Rev. Stat. § 38.300(3).

17               “A wrongful foreclosure claim challenges the authority behind the foreclosure, not the 18               foreclosure act itself.” McKnight Family, L.L.P., 310 P.3d at 559 (citing Collins v. Union Fed.
19               Sav. & Loan, 662 P.2d 610, 623 (Nev. 1983)). “The material issue in a wrongful foreclosure claim 20               is whether ‘the trustor was in default when the power of sale was exercised.’” Turbay v. Bank of 21               *Am., N.A., No. 2:12-CV-1367-JCM-PAL; 2013 WL 1145212, at *4 (quoting Collins, 662 P.2d at* 22               623). “Deciding a wrongful foreclosure claim against a homeowners’ association involves 23               interpreting covenants, conditions or restrictions applicable to residential property.” McKnight
24               Family, L.L.P., 310 P.3d at 559. “This type of interpretation falls under NRS 38.310.” Id.
25               Additionally, NRS 38.310 applies to laws “contain[ing] conditions and restrictions applicable to 26               residential property.” Id. at 558.

27               “[U]njust enrichment is an equitable remedy.” McKesson HBOC, Inc. v. New York State
28               Common Ret. Fund, Inc., 339 F.3d 1087, 1093 (9th Cir. 2003). A claim for unjust enrichment qualifies as a “civil action” under NRS 38.300(3) “because it exists separate from the title to land.”

1 Similarly, plaintiff's claims for negligence, negligence per se, breach of contract,
2 misrepresentation, and breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing all involve interpreting 3 terms set forth in the CC&Rs applicable to the property and are thus civil claims as defined in NRS 4 38.300. In particular, the negligence and negligence per se claims allege NRS violations, which 5 require an interpretation of the regulations and statutes that contained conditions and restrictions
6 applicable to the property so as to fall within the scope of NRS 38.310. plaintiff's claims for 7 breach of contract, misrepresentation, and breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing are 8 based on alleged violations of obligations set forth in the CC&Rs and the terms and statements 9 therein.

10 Consequently, plaintiff must first submit these claims to mediation before proceeding with 11 a civil action. See e.g., U.S. Bank, N.A. v. Woodchase Condo. Homeowners Ass'n, No.
12 215CV01153APGGWF, 2016 WL 1734085, at *2 (D. Nev. May 2, 2016); Saticoy Bay, LLC Series
13 1702 Empire Mine v. Fed. Nat'l Mortg. Ass'n, No. 214-cv-01975-KJD-NJK, 2015 WL 5709484, 14 at *4 (D. Nev. Sept. 29, 2015).

15 2. Motion to dismiss RLP-Shasta and Red Lizard's crossclaim (ECF No. 41)

16 a. Declaratory relief/quiet title

17 The HOA argues that because it is not alleging an adverse claim to the property, it is not a 18 proper party to RLP-Shasta and Red Lizard's declaratory relief/quiet title claim. (ECF No. 41).
19 The court disagrees.<sup>3</sup>

20 Here, the HOA is a necessary party to this action based on the current allegations and relief 21 sought. If the foreclosure sale is invalidated or set aside, the HOA's superpriority lien might be 22 reinstated as an encumbrance against the property. See, e.g., U.S. Bank, N.A. v. Ascente
23 Homeowners Ass'n, No. 2:15-cv-00302-JAD-VCF, 2015 WL 8780157, at *2 (D. Nev. Dec. 15, 24 2015). "The disposition of this action in the HOA's absence may impair or impede its ability to 25 protect its interests." U.S. Bank, N.A., 2015 WL 8780157, at *2. In particular, if plaintiff 26 "succeeds in invalidating the sale without the HOA being a party to this suit, separate litigation to

28 <sup>3</sup> The court discussed the standard for determining necessary parties under Rule 19 in Section III, subsection 1.a, supra.

1 further settle the priority of the parties' respective liens and rights may be necessary." Id. Thus,
2 if the HOA is not a party, plaintiff, as well as RLP-Shasta and Red Lizard, would not be able to 3 secure the complete relief sought. See id.; see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 19(a). As stated above, the 4 HOA will remain a party to this litigation. Accordingly, the HOA's motion to dismiss RLP-Shasta
5 and Red Lizard's quiet title claim will be denied.

6 b. Preliminary and permanent injunction

7 Claim (2) of RLP-Shasta and Red Lizard's crossclaim will be dismissed without prejudice
8 as the court follows the well-settled rule that a claim for "injunctive relief" standing alone is not a 9 cause of action. See, e.g., In re Wal-Mart Wage & Hour Emp't Practices Litig., 490 F. Supp. 2d
10 1091, 1130 (D. Nev. 2007); Tillman v. Quality Loan Serv. Corp., No. 2:12-CV-346 JCM RJJ, 2012
11 WL 1279939, at *3 (D. Nev. Apr. 13, 2012) (finding that "injunctive relief is a remedy, not an 12 independent cause of action"); Jensen v. Quality Loan Serv. Corp., 702 F. Supp. 2d 1183, 1201
13 (E.D. Cal. 2010) ("A request for injunctive relief by itself does not state a cause of action.").

14 c. Unjust enrichment

15 The court will dismiss, without prejudice, RLP-Shasta and Red Lizard's crossclaim for 16 unjust enrichment due to their failure to mediate pursuant to NRS 38.310. See, e.g., Nev. Rev.
17 Stat. § 38.310(1); McKnight Family, L.L.P., 310 P.3d at 555. RLP-Shasta and Red Lizard must 18 first submit this claim to mediation before proceeding with a civil action. See e.g., U.S. Bank, N.A.
19 v. Woodchase Condo. Homeowners Ass'n, No. 215CV01153APGGWF, 2016 WL 1734085, at *2
20 (D. Nev. May 2, 2016); Saticoy Bay, LLC Series 1702 Empire Mine v. Fed. Nat'l Mortg. Ass'n, 21 No. 214-cv-01975-KJD-NJK, 2015 WL 5709484, at *4 (D. Nev. Sept. 29, 2015).

22 3. Christiana Trust's motions for summary judgment

23 As the court will dismiss all of plaintiff's claims except for plaintiff's claim for quiet title,
24 the court will limit its discussion of plaintiff's motions for summary judgment to plaintiff's claim 25 for quiet title.

26 Under Nevada law, "[a]n action may be brought by any person against another who claims 27 an estate or interest in real property, adverse to the person bringing the action for the purpose of 28 determining such adverse claim." Nev. Rev. Stat. § 40.010. "A plea to quiet title does not require

1 any particular elements, but each party must plead and prove his or her own claim to the property
2 in question and a plaintiff's right to relief therefore depends on superiority of title." Chapman v.
3 Deutsche Bank Nat'l Trust Co., 302 P.3d 1103, 1106 (Nev. 2013) (citations and internal quotation
4 marks omitted). Therefore, for a party to succeed on a quiet title claim, it needs to show that its 5 claim to the property is superior to all others. See also Breliant v. Preferred Equities Corp., 918
6 P.2d 314, 318 (Nev. 1996) ("In a quiet title action, the burden of proof rests with the plaintiff to 7 prove good title in himself.").

8 Section 116.3116(1) of the Nevada Revised Statutes<sup>4</sup> gives an HOA a lien on its 9 homeowners' residences for unpaid assessments and fines; moreover, NRS 116.3116(2) gives 10 priority to that HOA lien over all other liens and encumbrances with limited exceptions—such as 11 "[a] first security interest on the unit recorded before the date on which the assessment sought to 12 be enforced became delinquent." Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.3116(2)(b).

13 The statute then carves out a partial exception to subparagraph (2)(b)'s exception for first 14 security interests. See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.3116(2). In SFR Investment Pool 1 v. U.S. Bank, the 15 Nevada Supreme Court provided the following explanation:

16 As to first deeds of trust, NRS 116.3116(2) thus splits an HOA lien into two pieces, 17 a superpriority piece and a subpriority piece. The superpriority piece, consisting of 18 the last nine months of unpaid HOA dues and maintenance and nuisance-abatement charges, is "prior to" a first deed of trust. The subpriority piece, consisting of all other HOA fees or assessments, is subordinate to a first deed of trust.

19 334 P.3d 408, 411 (Nev. 2014) ("SFR Investments").

20 Chapter 116 of the Nevada Revised Statutes permits an HOA to enforce its superpriority
21 lien by nonjudicial foreclosure sale. Id. at 415. Thus, "NRS 116.3116(2) provides an HOA a true 22 superpriority lien, proper foreclosure of which will extinguish a first deed of trust." Id. at 419; see 23 also Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.3116(2)(1) (providing that "the association may foreclose its lien by sale" 24 upon compliance with the statutory notice and timing rules).

25 Subsection (1) of NRS 116.3116 provides that the recitals in a deed made pursuant to 26 NRS 116.3116 of the following are conclusive proof of the matters recited:

27 _____
28 <sup>4</sup> The 2015 Legislature revised Chapter 116 substantially. 2015 Nev. Stat., ch. 266. Except where otherwise indicated, the references in this order to statutes codified in NRS Chapter 116 are to the version of the statutes in effect in 2011–13, when the events giving rise to this litigation occurred.

- 1 (a) Default, the mailing of the notice of delinquent assessment, and the recording
2 of the notice of default and election to sell;
3 (b) The elapsing of the 90 days; and
4 (c) The giving of notice of sale[.]

5 Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.31166(1)(a)–(c).<sup>5</sup> “The ‘conclusive’ recitals concern default, notice, and 6 publication of the [notice of sale], all statutory prerequisites to a valid HOA lien foreclosure sale
7 as stated in NRS 116.31162 through NRS 116.31164, the sections that immediately precede and 8 give context to NRS 116.31166.” Shadow Wood Homeowners Assoc. v. N.Y. Cmty. Bancorp., Inc.,
9 366 P.3d 1105 (Nev. 2016) (“Shadow Wood”). Nevertheless, courts retain the equitable authority
10 to consider quiet title actions when a HOA’s foreclosure deed contains statutorily conclusive
11 recitals. See id. at 1112.

12 Here, the parties have provided the recorded trustee’s deed upon sale, the recorded notice 13 of delinquent assessment, the recorded notice of default and election to sell, the recorded notice of 14 trustee’s sale, and the foreclosure deed upon sale. See (ECF No. 59-8, 59-11, 59-13, 59-15).
15 Pursuant to NRS 116.31166, these recitals in the recorded foreclosure deed are conclusive to the 16 extent that they implicate compliance with NRS 116.31162 through NRS 116.31164, which 17 provide the statutory prerequisites of a valid foreclosure. See id. at 1112 (“[T]he recitals made
18 conclusive by operation of NRS 116.31166 implicate compliance only with the statutory 19 prerequisites to foreclosure.”). Therefore, pursuant to NRS 116.31166 and the recorded

20 <sup>5</sup> The statute further provides as follows:

21
22 2. Such a deed containing those recitals is conclusive against the unit's 23 former owner, his or her heirs and assigns, and all other persons. The receipt for the 24 purchase money contained in such a deed is sufficient to discharge the purchaser 25 from obligation to see to the proper application of the purchase money.

26 3. The sale of a unit pursuant to NRS 116.31162, 116.31163 and 116.31164 27 vests in the purchaser the title of the unit’s owner without equity or right of 28 redemption.

Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.31166(2)–(3).

1 foreclosure deed, the foreclosure sale is valid to the extent that it complied with NRS 116.31162
2 through NRS 116.31164.

3 Importantly, while NRS 116.3116 accords certain deed recitals conclusive effect—e.g.,
4 default, notice, and publication of the notice of sale—it does not conclusively, as a matter of law,
5 entitle defendants to success on the parties’ quiet title claims. See Shadow Wood, 366 P.3d at 1112
6 (rejecting contention that NRS 116.31166 defeats, as a matter of law, actions to quiet title). Thus,
7 the question remains whether plaintiff has demonstrated sufficient grounds to justify setting aside
8 the foreclosure sale. See id.

9 “When sitting in equity . . . courts must consider the entirety of the circumstances that bear
10 upon the equities. This includes considering the status and actions of all parties involved, including 11 whether an innocent party may be harmed by granting the desired relief.” Id.

12 Plaintiff raises the following grounds in support of its motions for summary judgment: (1)
13 the constitutionality of NRS 116.3116 and the Ninth Circuit decision in Bourne Valley Court Trust
14 v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 832 F.3d 1154 (9th Cir. 2016) (“Bourne Valley”); (2) rejected tender;
15 (3) inadequate notice; (4) recordation of the notice of default during the borrower’s bankruptcy
16 voids the HOA foreclosure sale as a matter of law; (5) “the foreclosure deed recitals do not 17 establish the HOA foreclosed on the super priority lien;” (6) commercial reasonability under 18 Shadow Wood; and (7) the CC&R provisions “preclude the extinguishment of the first deed of 19 trust.” (ECF Nos. 45, 59). As set forth in further detail below, the court finds that plaintiff has 20 failed to demonstrate it is entitled to summary judgment.

21 1. Due process

22 Plaintiff’s first motion for summary judgment argues that NRS Chapter 116 is 23 unconstitutional under Bourne Valley, wherein the Ninth Circuit held that the HOA foreclosure
24 statute is facially unconstitutional. (ECF No. 45). Plaintiff further contends that Bourne Valley
25 renders any factual issues concerning actual notice irrelevant. Id. at 7.

26 The Ninth Circuit held that NRS 116.3116’s “opt-in” notice scheme, which required a
27 HOA to alert a mortgage lender that it intended to foreclose only if the lender had affirmatively
28 requested notice, facially violated mortgage lenders’ constitutional due process rights. Bourne

1 Valley, 832 F.3d at 1157–58. The facially unconstitutional provision, as identified in Bourne
2 Valley, exists in NRS 116.31163(2). See id. at 1158. At issue is the “opt-in” provision that 3 unconstitutionally shifts the notice burden to holders of the property interest at risk. See id.

4 “A first deed of trust holder only has a constitutional grievance if he in fact did not receive 5 reasonable notice of the sale at which his property rights was extinguished.” Wells Fargo Bank,
6 N.A. v. Sky Vista Homeowners Ass’n, No. 315CV00390RCJVPC, 2017 WL 1364583, at *4 (D.
7 Nev. Apr. 13, 2017). To state a procedural due process claim, a claimant must allege “(1) a
8 deprivation of a constitutionally protected liberty or property interest, and (2) a denial of adequate 9 procedural protections.” Brewster v. Bd. of Educ. of Lynwood Unified Sch. Dist., 149 F.3d 971, 10 982 (9th Cir. 1998). BOA has failed on both prongs.

11 Here, plaintiff has failed to show that it did not receive proper notice. The fact that plaintiff 12 contacted NAS regarding the pending foreclosure sale demonstrates that BOA had notice of the 13 sale. Therefore, plaintiff’s due process argument fails as a matter of law. See, e.g., Spears v.
14 Spears, 596 P.2d 210, 212 (Nev. 1979) (“The rule is well established that one who is not prejudiced 15 by the operation of a statute cannot question its validity.”).

16 Further, plaintiff confuses constitutionally mandated notice with the notices required to 17 conduct a valid foreclosure sale. Due process does not require actual notice. Jones v. Flowers, 18 547 U.S. 220, 226 (2006). Rather, it requires notice “reasonably calculated, under all the 19 circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an 20 opportunity to present their objections.” Mullane v. Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co., 339 U.S.
21 306, 314 (1950); see also Bourne Valley, 832 F.3d at 1158.

22 Accordingly, plaintiff has failed to show that summary judgment is proper based on Bourne 23 Valley.

24 2. Tender

25 Plaintiff contends that the deed of trust still encumbers the property because the HOA/NAS
26 wrongfully rejected BANA’s tender of the superpriority amount. (ECF No. 59). The court
27 disagrees, as BANA did not tender an amount sufficient to extinguish the HOA’s superpriority 28 lien.

1 Under NRS 116.31166(1), the holder of a first deed of trust may pay off the superpriority
2 portion of an HOA lien to prevent the foreclosure sale from extinguishing that security interest.
3 See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.31166(1); see also SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 414 (“But as a junior 4 lienholder, BOA could have paid off the SHHOA lien to avert loss of its security . . . .”); see also,
5 e.g., 7912 Limbwood Ct. Trust v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., et al., 979 F. Supp. 2d 1142, 1149 (D.
6 Nev. 2013) (“If junior lienholders want to avoid this result, they readily can preserve their security
7 interests by buying out the senior lienholder’s interest.” (citing Carillo v. Valley Bank of Nev., 734
8 P.2d 724, 725 (Nev. 1987); Keever v. Nicholas Beers Co., 611 P.2d 1079, 1083 (Nev. 1980))).

9 The superpriority lien portion, however, consists of “the last nine months of unpaid HOA 10 dues and maintenance and nuisance-abatement charges,” while the subpriority piece consists of 11 “all other HOA fees or assessments.” SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 411 (emphasis added); see 12 also 7912 Limbwood Ct. Trust, 979 F. Supp. 2d at 1150 (“The superpriority lien consists only of 13 unpaid assessments and certain charges specifically identified in § 116.31162.”); Horizons at 14 Seven Hills Homeowners Association v. Ikon Holdings, LLC, 373 P.3d 66 (Nev. 2016) (“SFR
15 characterized the superpriority piece as including ‘the last nine months of unpaid HOA dues and 16 maintenance and nuisance-abatement charges.’”).

17 Here, BANA presumed that the amount set forth in the notice of default included more 18 than the superpriority lien portion and that a lesser amount be sufficient to preserve its interest in 19 the property. See generally, e.g., Nev. Rev. Stat. § 107.080 (allowing trustee’s sale under a deed 20 of trust only when a subordinate interest has failed to make good the deficiency in performance or 21 payment for 35 days); Nev. Rev. Stat. § 40.430 (barring judicially ordered foreclosure sale if the 22 deficiency is made good at least 5 days prior to sale).

23 After failing to use the legal remedies available to plaintiff and its predecessors in interest 24 to prevent the property from being sold to a third party—for example, seeking a temporary 25 restraining order and preliminary injunction and filing a lis pendens on the property (see Nev.
26 Rev. Stat. §§ 14.010, 40.060)—plaintiff now seeks to profit from it and its predecessor’s failure to 27 follow the rules set forth in the statutes. See generally, e.g., Barkley’s Appeal. Bentley’s Estate, 2 28 Monag. 274, 277 (Pa. 1888) (“In the case before us, we can see no way of giving the petitioner the

1 equitable relief she asks without doing great injustice to other innocent parties who would not have 2 been in a position to be injured by such a decree as she asks if she had applied for relief at an
3 earlier day.”); Nussbaumer v. Superior Court in & for Yuma Cty., 489 P.2d 843, 846 (Ariz. 1971)
4 (“Where the complaining party has access to all the facts surrounding the questioned transaction
5 and merely makes a mistake as to the legal consequences of his act, equity should normally not 6 interfere, especially where the rights of third parties might be prejudiced thereby.”).

7 Accordingly, plaintiff’s argument regarding tender does not entitle it to judgment as a 8 matter of law.

9 3. Inadequate notice

10 Plaintiff argues that the notices in this case was statutorily inadequate because they 11 included additional fees and costs beyond the superpriority amount as defined by NRS 116.3116.
12 (ECF No. 59). This argument was considered and rejected by the court in SFR Investments:

13 U.S. Bank further complains about the content of the notice it
14 received. It argues that due process requires specific notice 15 indicating the amount of the superpriority piece of the lien and 16 explaining how the beneficiary of the first deed of trust can prevent 17 the superpriority foreclosure sale. But it appears from the record 18 that specific lien amounts were stated in the notices, ranging from 19 $1,149.24 when the notice of delinquency was recorded to 20 $4,542.06 when the notice of sale was sent. The notices went to the 21 homeowner and other junior lienholders, not just U.S. Bank, so it
22 was appropriate to state the total amount of the lien. As U.S. Bank 23 argues elsewhere, dues will typically comprise most, perhaps even all, of the HOA lien. See supra note 3. And from what little the record contains, nothing appears to have stopped U.S. Bank from determining the precise superpriority amount in advance of the sale or paying the entire amount and requesting a refund of the balance.
Cf. In re Medaglia, 52 F.3d 451, 455 (2d Cir.1995) (“[I]t is well established that due process is not offended by requiring a person with actual, timely knowledge of an event that may affect a right to exercise due diligence and take necessary steps to preserve that right.”).

24 334 P.3d at 418. Accordingly, the court holds that the notices in this case did not render the 25 foreclosure sale statutorily defective.

26 4. Chavez’s bankruptcy

27 Plaintiff also argues that the association recorded its second notice of foreclosure sale in 28 violation of the automatic stay resulting from Chavez’s bankruptcy. (ECF No. 59). Chavez is not

1 a party to this action, and plaintiff does not demonstrate that it has standing to raise arguments on 2 behalf of Chavez. See Kowalski v. Tesmer, 543 U.S. 125, 130 (2004) (holding that in order to 3 invoke third-party standing a plaintiff must demonstrate that the party asserting the right has a 4 “close” relationship with the person who possesses the right and that there is a “hindrance” to the 5 possessor’s ability to assert his own interests.”).

6 5. Whether the HOA foreclosed on the super priority lien

7 Plaintiff argues that the foreclosure deed did not contain sufficient recitals to establish that 8 the HOA sale foreclosed upon the superpriority interest of the lien. (ECF No. 59). Here, the 9 foreclosure deed referenced the notice of delinquent assessment lien, which contained a 10 superpriority portion. (ECF No. 59-15). Therefore, the HOA foreclosed upon its superpriority 11 interest.

12 6. Commercial reasonability

13 Plaintiff argues that the foreclosure sale was commercially unreasonable because the 14 property sold at approximately 4% of its fair market value,<sup>6</sup> which is grossly inadequate so as to 15 justify setting the foreclosure aside. (ECF No. 59).

16 NRS 116.3116 codifies the Uniform Common Interest Ownership Act (“UCIOA”) in 17 Nevada. See Nev. Rev. Stat. § 116.001 (“This chapter may be cited as the Uniform Common-18 Interest Ownership Act”); see also SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 410. Numerous courts have 19 interpreted the UCIOA and NRS 116.3116 as imposing a commercial reasonableness standard on 20 foreclosure of association liens.<sup>7</sup>

21
22 <sup>6</sup> Here, the foreclosure sale price was $4,748 and the fair market value as estimated by 23 plaintiff’s expert was $117,000. (ECF No. 59).

24 <sup>7</sup> See, e.g., Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC v. Alessi & Koenig, LLC, 962 F. Supp. 2d 1222, 1229
25 (D. Nev. 2013) (“[T]he sale for $10,000 of a Property that was worth $176,000 in 2004, and which 26 was probably worth somewhat more than half as much when sold at the foreclosure sale, raises
27 serious doubts as to commercial reasonableness.”); SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 418 n.6 (noting 28 bank’s argument that purchase at association foreclosure sale was not commercially reasonable);
Thunder Props., Inc. v. Wood, No. 3:14-cv-00068-RCJ-WGC, 2014 WL 6608836, at *2 (D. Nev.
Nov. 19, 2014) (concluding that purchase price of “less than 2% of the amounts of the deed of trust” established commercial unreasonableness “almost conclusively”); Rainbow Bend Homeowners Ass’n v. Wilder, No. 3:13-cv-00007-RCJ-VPC, 2014 WL 132439, at *2 (D. Nev.
Jan. 10, 2014) (deciding case on other grounds but noting that “the purchase of a residential property free and clear of all encumbrances for the price of delinquent HOA dues would raise grave doubts as to the commercial reasonableness of the sale under Nevada law”); Will v. Mill Condo. Owners’ Ass’n, 848 A.2d 336, 340 (Vt. 2004) (discussing commercial reasonableness

1 In Shadow Wood, the Nevada Supreme Court held that an HOA’s foreclosure sale may be 2 set aside under a court’s equitable powers notwithstanding any recitals on the foreclosure deed
3 where there is a “grossly inadequate” sales price and “fraud, unfairness, or oppression.” 366 P.3d
4 at 1110; see also Nationstar Mortg., LLC v. SFR Invs. Pool 1, LLC, 184 F. Supp. 3d 853, 857–58
5 (D. Nev. 2016). In other words, “demonstrating that an association sold a property at its 6 foreclosure sale for an inadequate price is not enough to set aside that sale; there must also be a 7 showing of fraud, unfairness, or oppression.” Id. at 1112; see also Long v. Towne, 639 P.2d 528,
8 530 (Nev. 1982) (“Mere inadequacy of price is not sufficient to justify setting aside a foreclosure
9 sale, absent a showing of fraud, unfairness or oppression.” (citing Golden v. Tomiyasu, 387 P.2d
10 989, 995 (Nev. 1963) (stating that, while a power-of-sale foreclosure may not be set aside for mere 11 inadequacy of price, it may be if the price is grossly inadequate and there is “in addition proof of 12 some element of fraud, unfairness, or oppression as accounts for and brings about the inadequacy 13 of price” (internal quotation omitted)))).

14 The Shadow Wood court did not adopt the restatement. Compare Shadow Wood, 366 P.3d 15 at 1112–13 (citing the restatement as secondary authority to warrant use of the 20% threshold test 16 for grossly inadequate sales price), with St. James Village, Inc. v. Cunningham, 210 P.3d 190, 213
17 (Nev. 2009) (explicitly adopting § 4.8 of the Restatement in specific circumstances); Foster v.
18 Costco Wholesale Corp., 291 P.3d 150, 153 (Nev. 2012) (“[W]e adopt the rule set forth in the 19 Restatement (Third) of Torts: Physical and Emotional Harm section 51.”); Cucinotta v. Deloitte &
20 Touche, LLP, 302 P.3d 1099, 1102 (Nev. 2013) (affirmatively adopting the Restatement (Second) 21 of Torts section 592A). Because Nevada courts have not adopted the relevant section of the 22 restatement at issue here, the Long test, which requires a showing of fraud, unfairness, or 23 oppression in addition to a grossly inadequate sale price to set aside a foreclosure sale, controls.
24 See 639 P.2d at 530.

25 Nevada has not clearly defined what constitutes “unfairness” in determining commercial 26 reasonableness. The few Nevada cases that have discussed commercial reasonableness state, 27 “every aspect of the disposition, including the method, manner, time, place, and terms, must be 28 _____ standard and concluding that “the UCIOA does provide for this additional layer of protection”).

1 commercially reasonable.” Levers v. Rio King Land & Inv. Co., 560 P.2d 917, 920 (Nev. 1977).
2 This includes “quality of the publicity, the price obtained at the auction, [and] the number of 3 bidders in attendance.” Dennison v. Allen Grp. Leasing Corp., 871 P.2d 288, 291 (Nev. 1994)
4 (citing Savage Constr. v. Challenge–Cook, 714 P.2d 573, 574 (Nev. 1986)).

5 Here, plaintiff fails to set forth sufficient evidence to show fraud, unfairness, or oppression
6 so as to justify the setting aside of the foreclosure sale. Plaintiff relies on its assertion that BANA
7 tendered the superpriority amount to show fraud, unfairness, or oppression. See (ECF No. 59).
8 However, as the discussed in the previous section, the amount due was set forth in the notice of 9 default. Rather than tendering the noticed amount under protest so as to preserve its interest and 10 then later seeking a refund of the difference in dispute, BANA sent the HOA trustee a letter
11 requesting a payoff ledger. This is insufficient to satisfy the requirements for sufficient tender.
12 Plaintiff’s alternative arguments regarding commercial reasonability mimic arguments made 13 elsewhere in its brief. See (ECF No. 59 at 20-21). The court need not re-address<sup>8</sup> each argument 14 here, for none of them demonstrate fraud, unfairness, or oppression.

15 Accordingly, plaintiff’s commercial reasonability argument fails as a matter of law as it 16 has not set forth evidence of fraud, unfairness, or oppression. See, e.g., Nationstar Mortg., LLC v.
17 SFR Investments Pool 1, LLC, No. 70653, 2017 WL 1423938, at *2 n.2 (Nev. App. Apr. 17, 2017)
18 (“Sale price alone, however, is never enough to demonstrate that the sale was commercially
19 unreasonable; rather, the party challenging the sale must also make a showing of fraud, unfairness, 20 or oppression that brought about the low sale price.”).

21 7. The CC&Rs

22 Plaintiff cites the CC&Rs mortgage protection clause as evidence that plaintiff’s deed of 23 trust survived foreclosure. (ECF No. 59). The Supreme Court of Nevada has explicitly rejected
24 plaintiff’s implied argument that a mortgage protection clause can supersede the statutory structure
25 of NRS 116.3116. See SFR Investments, 334 P.3d at 418-19.

26
27
28 <sup>8</sup> The court considers plaintiff’s arguments regarding the CC&Rs in the next section of this order.

1 Plaintiff also argues that the mortgage protection clause in the CC&Rs provides evidence
2 of “unfairness” sufficient to set aside the foreclosure sale as commercially unreasonable. (ECF
3 No. 59). This court has ruled that language in a mortgage protection clause purporting to 4 subordinate a HOA lien to the first deed of trust does not, without more, constitute unfairness in 5 the context of a HOA foreclosure. See, e.g., Bank of America, N.A. v. Hollow de Oro Homeowners
6 Association, --- F. Supp. 3d. ---, 2018 WL 523354 (D. Nev. Jan. 23, 2018).

7 4. The HOA’s motions for summary judgment

8 a. The HOA’s motion for summary judgment against plaintiff

9 The court holds that the foreclosure sale transferred title free and clear to defendant Red
10 Lizard. Therefore, the HOA, Red Lizard, and RLP-Shasta are entitled to summary judgment 11 against plaintiff on plaintiff’s claim for quiet title. See Lewis v. Lynn, 236 F.3d 766, 768 (5th Cir.
12 2001) (holding that when a plaintiff’s claims fail as a matter of law on a motion for summary
13 judgment, all defendants are entitled to a final judgment in their favor on these claims, regardless 14 of whether they joined the motion).

15 b. The HOA’s motion for summary judgment against Red Lizard

16 In light of the foregoing, the court will deny the HOA’s motion for summary judgment
17 against Red Lizard as moot.

18 IV. Conclusion

19 In light of the foregoing, the HOA’s motion to dismiss plaintiff’s first amended complaint 20 will be granted as to plaintiff’s claims for (1) preliminary and permanent injunction; (2) wrongful 21 foreclosure; (3) unjust enrichment; (4) negligence; (5) negligence per se; (6) breach of contract;
22 (7) misrepresentation; (8) and breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing. (ECF No.
23 23). The HOA’s motion to dismiss plaintiff’s quiet title/declaratory relief claim will be denied.
24 Id.

25 Further, the HOA’s motion to dismiss RLP-Shasta and Red Lizard’s crossclaims will be 26 granted without prejudice as to RLP-Shasta and Red Lizard’s claims for (1) preliminary and 27 permanent injunction and (2) unjust enrichment. (ECF No. 41). The HOA’s motion will be denied 28 as to RLP-Shasta and Red Lizard’s claim for declaratory relief/quiet title. Id.

1 Furthermore, the HOA's motion for summary judgment against plaintiff will be granted.
2 Therefore, the HOA, Red Lizard, and RLP-Shasta are entitled to judgment as a matter of law
3 against plaintiff. The court will deny plaintiff's motions for summary judgment. The court will 4 deny the HOA's motion for summary judgment against Red Lizard and RLP-Shasta as moot.

5 Accordingly,

6 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that the HOA's motion to 7 dismiss (ECF No. 23) be, and the same hereby is, GRANTED in part and DENIED in part,
8 consistent with the foregoing.

9 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the HOA's motion to dismiss RLP-Shasta and Red
10 Lizard's crossclaims (ECF No. 41) be, and the same hereby is, GRANTED in part and DENIED 11 in part, consistent with the foregoing.

12 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiff's first motion for summary judgment (ECF No.
13 45) be, and the same hereby is, DENIED.

14 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the HOA's motion for summary judgment against 15 plaintiff (ECF No. 57) be, and the same hereby is, GRANTED, consistent with the foregoing.

16 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the HOA's motion for summary judgment against Red 17 Lizard (ECF No. 58) be, and the same hereby is, DENIED as moot.

18 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiff's second motion for summary judgment (ECF 19 No. 59) be, and the same hereby is, DENIED.

20 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the HOA shall prepare and submit a proposed judgment 21 consistent with the foregoing within thirty (30) days of the date of this order.

22 DATED May 24, 2018.
